NAGASOFT

NCP-X1

Control Panel for NSCaster X1

The control panel can be used to improve the control efficiency, which is more suitable for professional users. The device has switch buttons, operation buttons, pan/tilt joystick, tuning fader. It can be connected directly to X1 device by USB ports.

❖ Parameter

Support switching special effects control, select special effects through the knob, and set the transition time through the knob.

Support output volume tuning with audio control, stereo LED real-time dynamic display output volume.

With pan tilt rocker, it can control the pan tilt and zoom of the camera.

Support the local source playing control, and operate the source playing operation.

Support key control to release and cancel the release of CG file.

Support subtitle and clock control buttons.

It supports USB power supply.

Two-color lights buttons with blue background.

Support one click to start / stop live broadcast and recording.

Support scoreboard control, can control the scoreboard display, points scoring and game score addition and subtraction, activity timing start and stop.

Support buttons to select picture, CG file and picture in picture, can select picture, CG file and picture in picture through knob control, and switch to PGM screen.